SECOND ANNUAL EXCURSION

TO OLD POINT COMFORT ON

THE SEASHORE.

August 9th the Date.

The Chesapeake & Ohio announces that on Wednesday, August 9th, a special train will run under the authority of the company from the line of the New York, West Virginia & Ohio

Valley Company, Western Division,

to Old Point Comfort on the seashore.

The train will be composed of the best of the Pullman day coaches and Pullman

Buffet Sleeping Cars, and will be under the direct supervision of Mr.

W. J. Berg, General Traveling Agent

of the company, who so attentively

looked after the comfort of the Hopkinsville party last year both individually and collectively and who added much to the pleasure of the trip.

It is the intention to make this the most attractive excursion over running Kentucky; ample provisions will be made for passengers so that none of the cars will be crowded.

A year ago, when the first excursion was run to Old Point, there were only a few along the line of the Chesapeake

& Ohio who were familiar with the trip, but as all who went last year's excursion have been praising it in the most enthusiastic terms, the great

Atlantic Coast Resort is now as well known in Kentucky and Tennessee as it is in the Eastern States.

There are several features of this trip which specially commend themselves to pleasure seekers: First, in the scenery along the route, the Chesapeake & Ohio is the most celebrated of American Railways. The canons

of New River, the barriers of the Alleghannles, the little fields of Virginia and the beautiful valley of the Shenandoah, need no comment. Old

Point Comfort is situated on Hampton Roads, the largest Harbor on the Atlantic Coast. The Hygeia Hotel, at Old Point Comfort, covers more ground than any other seashore resort. The surf bathing is excellent and perfectly safe. Fortress Monroe,

America's great military training school, is within a stone's throw of the Hotel. The National Soldiers

Home and the Indian Normal School

at Hampton are reached by a fifteen minutes drive. Norfolk, Portsmouth and Gosport Navy Yards are reached in three quarters of an hour

across Hampton Roads. Virginia

Beach and Ocean View, on the Atlantic Coast east of Norfolk, are within an hour's ride from that city. New York News, at the head of Hampton

Roads Harbor, near the scene of the great Naval Encounter between the Merrimack and the Monitor, is only eight miles distant from Old Point,

and Hotel Warwick at Newport News

is not surpassed by any other seashore resort.

There are a great many attractions

along the line of the Chesapeake &

Ohio and as stop-overs will be granted on the excursion tickets, they may all be visited.

Richmond, the Capital of the late

Confederacy, is among the chief attractions. It is specially interesting in relics of the late war.

Luray Caverns and Natural Bridge

are only a short distance from the main line of the Chesapeake & Ohio,

and side-trips will be made in connection with the excursion. Other

cheap side trips have been arranged specially for this excursion

CHARACTER IN FEET.

Reading Life from the Management of the Feet: Extraneous.

The use of feet is more characteristic than the feet themselves. Of course, there is the common and careless flat foot, and the neat foot,

and the vain foot, and the quick foot.

In Herriek's old poem the whole portrait of a dainty white-slipped girl is suggested by the words:

Like mine beneath her petticoat,

The little feet would in and out.

But the distinction of character are not seen, really, in the feet themselves,

but in what the owner does with them.

Sometimes it is significant that their owner does not know what to do with them. He is vulgarly, defiantly self-sufficient and despises ceremony, so when he smokes a cigar he puts his feet on the mantle-piece, out of the way. Or he is a country

bumpkin, painfully self-conscious, so he stands on one foot and then on the other and shifts them about, perplexed

what to do with them, as ill-bred folks, when they sit idle and sociable,

are perplexed by possessing a pair of hands. On the contrary the foot, whose feet are clear without spot or speck,

and regardless of expense, knows very well what to do with them; they are not part of the exhibition which is his constant care. In general, it is a sign of vanity to thrust forward habitually

a neat foot when one is at rest. A conceited man nurses a leg and admires

a foot, which he twitches and twists

beneath his delighted eye, quite unconsciously and in a different manner

from the foot, for the vain man thinks of the effect produced upon other people, but the conceited man is satisfied with himself, without any regard to the ordinary mortals who may chance to be observing him.

Very different is the "generous" mind

of the philanthropist, who thinks constantly of the rest of the world, and not of himself. There is nothing cramped about any of his ideas or of his possessions. He forgets such small matters as fashion and details of appearance. Except on state occasions,

he considers neatness to be a hindrance; every thing about him is large,

from his benevolent schemes down to his well-worn shoes.

His stand is not aloft, but patient,

well set on the ground; he is ready and ready, he waits to give what he can, and to do with his cat, and while he thinks of weighty matters, personal details are forgotten. He may walk flat-footed in old shoes; lastors and heels are infinitely

beneath his consideration, so his foot

is not the type that the dancing master believes to be the one thing necessary for a gentleman; but he is always ready, his feet are just what he needs, and the honor of his dancing

master shall never reach his ears.

This philanthropic man has done a great deal to widen and smooth life's roads for crowds of feet of another type. On the roads he has improved, the hobnailed boots go more contentedly.

They (the "hobnailed") are strong and rather defiant; for instance, they have a defiant way of turning up

and side-trips will be made in connection with the excursion. Other

cheap side trips have been ar-

ranged specially for this excursion

to Old Point Comfort on the seashore.

WOMEN WHISTLERS.

A Fad That is Increasing Among

the Fair Sex.

"She whistles like a bird," the young man of the present cries of his best girl. No one looks shocked or even surprised at the exclamation.

Two years ago such a remark would have been a sensation, but now it is so common for young ladies to whistle,

and whistle well, and so many of them are nubbins to do the same

that it can be commented upon admi-

ringly, even by the most conservative.

One of the first young ladies to introduce this practice into Chicago

dancing-halls was Miss Grace Han-

gry. She is a very slight, pale-faced girl, with most graceful and modest manner. She seldom consents to exhibit her accomplishments, unless her mother sits at the piano—an instrument which that lady knows how to use with wonderful effect. She always makes a gentle "attack" as a musical would say. Sometimes it is a waltz, often a fantastic scrap of music from one of the masters, now and then a little bird song, and unexpectedly one of the popular serenades. She can always be relied on to give all of the gems from the latest opera. When she pursues up her lips for whistling it does not detract her features in the least, but seems, indeed, rather to increase the piquancy of her face. She has a clear, pearly-like quality that is

J. O. RUST, Business Manager
T. E. BARTLEY, Business Manager

Maxwell, the St. Louis trunk murderer, has by the kindness of Missouri's Governor, had his hanging postponed thirty days.

McLean county is in the throes of a religious debate. Rev. White, of Ill., a rampant Protestant, and one or two Catholic fathers have locked horns, and there is imminent danger of a bloody tilt at logic.

The eluge is tired. After the first Monday in August it will cry out in pathetic tones, Oh! for a lodge near the head waters of Salt River where a boundless continuity of shade reigns in deep and solemn stillness!

The Madisonville Times has changed its name to the "Hopkins County Hustler," a euphonious combination that will catch the reading public along the "Tradewater." The (Glen's) have "hustling" ability of a high order, and like a certain historic insect which has crept into the classics, they will "get there all the same."

A paragraph is going the rounds of the press that this city has subscribed an additional $25,000 to the O. V. This is an aggravating mistake. Two or three gentlemen have been trying to raise that amount by private subscription, but as for the town voting this extra subsidy to the O. V., you had as well expect a hot day to hatch a city out of a setting of door-knobs.

The Clarksville Chronicle, to which we accord the cap and bells without further ado, perpetrates the following. "There is a girl in Hopkinsville whose head is so red that when she comes out in the street you can invariably see a whole drove of white horses." We confess, for the sake of argument, to pre-eminence on the red-headed girl question, but when it comes to hotel waiters, the Chronicle crawls down off of the bush and falls upon the neck of Clarksville with real instinct and affection.

The political speakings in this county are as warm as the weather. Breathitt carries the bloody shirt in one hand and a pension scare-crow in the other. Admitting that the office of Common Pleas judge is non-political, he jerks the party line as faint as he can and performs the usual circus tricks. The tariff also comes in as a point at issue, all of which are about as pertinent to the race as a pie-ue fan to an arctic expedition or spectacles to a blind man.

It gives us pleasure to note the rise of any of the boys of this county who have found the favor of the world. The Paducah Standard of Thursday contained the following: "Charles K. Wheeler, our talented assistant elector, is in demand all over the district, and invitations come to him from Hickman to Trigg. He is making a fine impression wherever he goes. On advice of friends he will not make a regular list of appointments, but will go wherever duty seems to call him."

Quite a sensation was created Friday at Trigg, a little town on the Kentucky river, by the cohabitation of a Methodist minister named Banda West. The dressing was done by the wife of another minister, of the Baptist persuasion, the Rev. J. Basil Thomas. Mrs. Thomas is pretty, and certain reports had been put in circulation that her beauty had improperly attracted the attention of Dr. Dupuy, a leading physician of the place. Mrs. Thomas became indignant, and on inquiry traced the slander to the Methodist brother, whereupon she determined to right her wrongs herself, which she did in the manner above stated.

And old editor scanning his experience with a moist vision is led to exclaim: "The man who handles the local department of a newspaper, learns after due experience not to expect even briefly expressed thanks for a column of pleasant things, but he knows as surely as cometh the winter that a single line in which there is an unintentional misrepresentation, will cause some one to be heard from as on a house top. And we may add that when he has made pleasant mention of the name of some person, place or thing, but on the thousandth time fails to do so, he must not expect to be forgiven. The omission may have been from accident, inadvertence or even an entire lack of knowledge. It matters not. The simple fact remains and he will be judged by that."

The Caldwell Telephone, speaking of the Cairo road in particular and railroad propositions in general, thinks that Trigg is in a frame of mind to vote a reasonable subsidy. If some such qualifications as the following should be observed:

"The tax would depend, somewhat, on the assurance a company could give of its ability to comply with its obligations, whether our people could be induced to vote a subsidy, or not. The next time they vote a subsidy, they will want a small bonus as a fortitude, to assure them of good faith, and the intention and ability of the company to comply with its contract. We want a railroad out, but we do not want to be trilled with whatever proposition that may be submitted to our people, it must not be ambiguous; it must be so much in dollars and cents, to be paid only when the road gives us connections with other roads and other cities and towns."

VARIATIONS ON THE O. V.

The official "denier" of the O. V. says in a special to the Commercial: "The story that the road will run from Marion to Paducah and the Princeton branch be disposed of, is false. When asked how about the consolidation of the Ohio Valley with Louisville, St. Louis & Texas line as published to-day, the emphatic reply was: "No other railroad or system of roads is interested or identified with the Ohio Valley in its extension to Evansville or south from Princeton." The Ohio Valley is having surveys made for the extension of their road into Evansville. The surveying party left Friday morning for Evansville. It is expected the transfer will be completed and running in 30 days. Surveys will be put on the extension south from Princeton this week and that division pushed to speedy completion."

In this connection the Paducah Standard of Saturday contained the following: "Apropos of this subject a gentleman who claimed to be 'on the inside' informed the Standard last night that Col. Huntington had secured the control of the O. V. and would extend it to Hopkinsville from Princeton, to form a connection between the former place and the N. X. & M. V. This same authority stated that Col. Huntington had secured control of the L. St. L. & T., now building from Louisville to Henderson. Both reports agree in the latter statement, the Standard's first information being that Huntington was preparing to give up the O. V. & S. W. between here and Louisville. It is a current belief along the line of the O. V. that that road will be extended to Paducah in the near future."

But the concluding selection is probably nearest the mark. It is from the Henderson Gleaner of Saturday: "Attempting just now to tell what the O. V. will do is about as uncertain as prophesying on the weather. When the managers of that road complete their arrangement for the extension they will announce it. In the meantime speculations are somewhat tiresome."

The Owensboro Inquirer laments that our electors "do not fill the bill" in a leader which falls to conceal a fatuous alarm that the Republicans are about to capture the state. The Inquirer wants spread-eagles "blue-penciled," &c., and desires our electors to argue the tariff from a statistical standpoint &c. The criticisms of our contemporary are able-bodied, but it appears like sending a letter to the enemy that "we are out of ammunition, come and capture us." Many of our electors are new men. They have not been on the stump, but they, at least, should be given the benefit of the presumption that the prize of a lasting reputation will lead them to the very highest endeavor for the party. If the campaign shall develop a few unknown men into strong, influential fighters, the wisdom of giving the kids the post of honor will be established.

All the speakings being held in this county are not on the regular programme. Every evening about dusk you can see a buggy load of Pulsing Metaphors leaving town and trace their flight into the evening shadows by the trailing clouds of dust that curl towards heaven in rhythmic folds. Nor is this all. When the streets are quiet, you may not infrequently hear the theatrical tones of the "politician" beating the midnight air in this city from the lofty phylae of a second or third story meeting. When "darkness falls from the wing of night, like a feather is wafted downward from an eagle in his flight," you may be certain that throughout the grand old county of Christian many a spectre fire in corn field and thickets tells the story of the campaigner as he is staying off the crash of worlds and the wreck of matter.

The world at large has always thought strange of the bible doctrine that even "the hairs of our head are numbered." The question is now set at rest by the plethoric Levi P. Morton, who wears the finest wig ever made. It took 400 Parisian artisans six months to make it, and every hair was carefully selected and numbered before being put into the wig. There is something really pathetic in the thought that the Hon. Levi may be matched baldheaded next November.

France is at last treated to a real duel. M. Plouquet and Gen. Bonhauger fought with swords and the latter was painfully wounded in the neck. M. Plouquet is a versatile gentleman. His oration in the assembly was followed by the duel and that afternoon he delivered a panegyric on Gambetta at the unveiling of the monument erected in honor of the great French statesman and orator.

George Dilmore, a wealthy farmer of Simpson county, was arrested Friday charged with having attempted to outrage the person of Miss Ella Anderson, a young girl of 15, of Franklin. Dilmore is married and has two daughters. The affair has raised no little excitement.

The Glasgow baby which was born with a full set of teeth and died immediately after birth—"last year was dry, this year will be dryer and next year this world will come to an end"—and then died, was probably apprehensive about the prohibition outlook.

George V. N. Lottrop, our Minister to Russia, is going to resign, and so is Mr. Lambert Trice, who represents our government in Belgium. These gentlemen are tired of the ennu of court life.

THE PENSION QUESTION.

The pension question is unnecessarily a political issue. Every pension application is subjected to close scrutiny, and, if it were the policy of the administration to kill off the pension business, it could easily do it by invalidating the applications. It is not enough to say the Republicans passed the pension laws. What would these laws amount to if the individual applications were not so bonafide recognized by the Democrats in power, a recognition which shows a profounder love for the veterans and the Union than is exhibited by the howling "day-at-homes" who want every cook and camp follower to be fed at the public crib.

In this connection we desire to call the attention of the people of this county to the following from the Dubuque Herald:

"Under the administration of the Democratic party the veterans are being paid far more pensions than they were formerly. It is the policy of the Democrats to pension liberally the deserving survivors who fought so valiantly for their country, and at the same time to examine the facts closely so that no spurious would-be veteran is paid what he does not deserve. The workings of the Iowa pension office show that the Democratic party is doing for the Union soldiers. During the last quarter Pension Agent Lake, at Des Moines, paid out over $800,000, which amount is distributed to 23,500 old soldiers or their heirs. The present pension roll is 30 per cent. greater than two years ago. There has been a net increase of 5,000 in Iowa. In the eighteen agencies of the United States there are 25,000 to 40,000 pensioners on the roll, a net increase of 125,000 in two years. The veterans are amazed themselves at the rapidity with which their just claims are being rewarded under the present administration."

CERULEAN SPRINGS.

Another Grand Occasion On Hand.

Cerulean Springs is assuming its old time aspect. Every train brings in fresh arrivals. Rooms engaged a few days ago are fast filling and by next Friday night a large crowd will be here.

Preparations are being made for one of the finest gatherings ever witnessed here. It will be the event of the season. A grand German of over twenty couples will participate. Word has been received from enough to insure a success. This is the first of a series of German to be given this season.

Miss Annie Shelton and brother, of Texas, returned from a brief visit to friends in Hopkinsville and will remain several weeks.

Miss Pauline Elliot and Mr. Tiny Cooper, of Lafayette, arrived yesterday.

Dr. Williams is here. The Dr. is very much exercised over the fact that he left his target rifle and the frogs make such a noise at night as to disturb his slumbers. In a day or two he and J. M. Gordon will make war upon the said frogs.

Eleven persons will be in on this P. M. train from Clarksville and more to follow Monday.

Don't forget next Friday night. It is useless to speak of the band as it is conceded to be the finest music we ever had.

Two Valuable CHRISTIAN COUNTY FARMS FOR SALE.

As the executor of James H. Hough, deceased, I will offer for sale at the Court House in Hopkinsville, Ky., on Monday, the 13th day of August, 1888,

About 11 acres, A. M., two valuable farms belonging to this estate and directed by his Will to be sold for division among his heirs. Both farms are situated in Christian County, Kentucky, on the Nashville Road, about four miles south-east of Hopkinsville, and about one mile from Oakley Station on the Henderson Division of the Louisville & Nashville R. R.

NO. 1.

Is the old Hough Homestead on the North side of the Nashville Road. It is well improved and in a high state of cultivation, is well watered and contains by recent survey about 350 acres.

NO. 2.

Known as the "Black Horse Farm," is situated on the South side of the Nashville Road, opposite No. 1, and lies between said road and the railroad, and contains by recent survey about 400 acres.

The title to both of these farms is perfect and both of them are good grain, tobacco, stock and fruit farms. The property is situated in a good neighborhood, convenient to the county seat, with a railroad, churches and schools, and offers first-class advantages to all who desire to invest in farming lands.

TERMS.—One third of the purchase money cash in hand, the remainder payable in four equal annual installments, with interest on the balance unpaid, and interest on the land to secure it.

Mrs. B. C. Dowdese, of Cincinnati, and Mrs. Lizzie Taylor, of Lexington, Ky., are visiting the family of Mr. E. B. Long. Mr. Dowdese was formerly President of South Kentucky College and is now preaching for the Richmond St. Church, Cincinnati.

Natural Gas Struck.

The town was thrown into a flutter of excitement Friday afternoon by the rumor that "gas had been struck." The cry of "wolf" had been heard so often that it was several hours before the report gained credence. Since then troops of people have been to the well. It is impossible to tell what this will amount to. It can be lighted and will burn for several minutes at the mouth of the well, blazing up two or three feet. There is 150 feet of sand and water in the well, and this will have to be removed before any definite information can be obtained. (Gas stocks can not now be bought for love or money, and everybody is exceedingly hopeful over the outcome.)

Fresh Fish.

As Col. E. G. Schree and Maj. Jno. W. Breathitt were coming home from the speaking at Bonnettsville Friday, they happened by the live fish pond on the old Fox place. The gleam of the waters was too much for the festive Col. and he says: "Hold on, Major, just you hitch the horse and I'll get out and catch you a mess of fish." The Major reluctantly obeyed, and Lige untied his patient fly hook from his hat-band, cut him a slim, sick sapling and made for the pond. When the Major came up he found Lige trawling industriously. He watched the fisherman silently for 15 minutes and saw him land 50 trout and two silver perch all of them about six inches long. They then got in the vehicle and arrived at home in time for supper. When this episode was related to the weather man the next morning, he ran violently down into the sea and was drowned.

Another Excursion to the Obolyshe Springs.

There will be another excursion to the Obolyshe Springs next Sunday the 22d, at 1:30 o'clock. Remember the round trip is only 25 cts.
This place is fast becoming a popular resort, the water being very fine and the surroundings cool and pleasant, and no doubt a large crowd will avail themselves of the opportunity to take the trip Sunday.

HERE AND THERE.

First-class easy running rockaway for sale cheap at C. W. Duckert's.
W. A. Wilgus' house and lot on South Main St. is for sale.
Miss Fannie Wilson, of Howell, Ky., is reported very ill with typhoid fever.
The Dancing Club had a very nice entertainment at Fleming's Cave, Friday night.
Mr. Clarence Anderson went to Elton Thursday to photograph the Boone family, ten in number.
The County Medical Society held an interesting session at Dr. Fairleigh's office yesterday.
The Commercial Club met Friday night and appointed committees on various important interests of the Club.
Uphaw Hucker was offered $300 for his three-year-old colt, Aito, Thursday, by a gentleman in this city.

Mrs. Julia Barker, a sister of Rev. J. W. Venable, of this city, died at her home in Gallatin, Tenn., last Thursday.
Mrs. Alex Overlander was bitten on the leg by a pet dog Thursday evening. The wound is not at all serious.
Mr. H. F. McCamy, late of Hopkinsville, has opened out a carriage shop at Edwards' old stand—Pinecon Banner.

Logan Feland, who is railroading in Alabama, has sent in his resignation as first sergeant in the Latham Light Guards.
Eleven colored teachers applied for certificates at the examination held by County Superintendent and Examiner Geo. McCarroll, Friday.

The L. & N. will sell round trip tickets to Cincinnati on July 21st and 22nd, good until 29th, on account of the meeting of the Patriarchs Militant, for $8.55.

The "step-off" in the pavement in front of Bryan's has been smoothed down. The removal of this "relic of barbarism" is commended by the traveling public.

We see in a neighboring exchange the following announcement: "Hon. James T. Barbee, State Prohibition Organizer, will speak at Hopkinsville on the 20th of this month."

Col. D. L. Johnson went to White Plains, Saturday, to represent Elector Bill Henry in the political discussion. Col. Johnson is "loaded" on the tariff and is flip enough on the other questions to give the race a tough fight.

Wm. Ferrell, of Crofton, Ky., an old time resident of Clarksville, is in the city. Mr. Ferrell is only 77 years of age, and his admiration for a certain genial widow leads to the belief that he would not object to a matrimonial alliance.—Tobacco Leaf.

Considerable interest is manifested in a trotting race which will come off at the Nashville fair in September, between Mr. Gill's "Goldsmith" and Mr. Barker's Wilkes horse. The race is for several hundred dollars, with a big forfeit already up.—Tobacco Leaf.

Two gentlemen made a novel wager the other day. They both noted down the majority of the winning candidate for sheriff as they believed, depositing therefor a ten dollar bill in an envelope. The envelope is not to be opened until after the election, and the one making the closest guess is to take the "jack pot."

The County Teacher's Institute meets in this city next Monday continuing in session one week. Among the outsiders who will make addresses are, C. H. Bush, A. H. Clark, D. L. Johnson and John Feland, Jr. The law requires all the teachers to attend the Institute or forfeit their certificates. This will bring out a big crowd.

To expel musquitoes, take of gum camphor a piece about one-third the size of a hen's egg and evaporate it by placing it in a tin vessel and holding it over a lamp, taking care that it does not ignite. The smoke will soon fill the room and expel the musquitoes, and not one will be found in the room next morning, even though the window should be left open at night.

The Fourth Circle of Bethel Baptist Association will meet at Zion church, near Trenton, Todd county, Ky., July 23 and 24, 1888. The following churches are expected to be represented: Bethel, Pembroke, Trenton, Kirkwood, Spring Creek and New Providence. Addresses, music and good preaching will be well interspersed. Dinner on the grounds Saturday.

When the candidates arrived at Newstead, Thursday afternoon, to fill the speaking appointment at 1 o'clock, they found the crowd "conspicuous for its absence." Not to be outdone the office-seekers put runners on horse-back and made them scour the harvest fields for voters. At 10 o'clock that night an audience assembled and the oratory had a full and free flow till daylight Friday morning.

At a moon-light picnic at Vaughn's Chapel near Fairview, on last Saturday night, trouble arose between two negroes in attendance, resulting in one of them receiving the contents of the other's pistol. Henry Neely, col., shot Jo Hill col., the ball taking effect in the latter's breast, inflicting a severe wound not thought to be a fatal wound. A woman is said to be at the bottom of it and Neely is still at large.—Elton Progress.

John S. McMahon, the Irish tramp temperance lecturer, addressed a big crowd in front of the Phoenix Saturday night and spoke at the Court-house last night. He will speak again to-night and will probably be here several days. He makes an interesting talk and has all the temperance philosophy at his tongue's end. He is a bit of an actor and gets off his pieces very cunningly. When he leaves here, he will lecture at Casky, Pembroke, Trenton and Guthrie in the order named.

The Courier-Journal, speaking of the celebration to be held in Louisville this fall, says: "It is said that the Commercial Club, or some one connected with it, advocates the idea of offering prizes to be drilled for by the State Guard during the fall celebration. The idea seems to be a good one. If it is adopted the Latham Guards, of Hopkinsville, (Company D, Third Regiment) will come pretty near getting first place."

Col. A. M. Haywood, Supreme Representative from the Georgia Grand Lodge K. of P., has been in the city several days trying to organize a Uniform Rank in Evergreen Lodge No. 38. Yesterday he had secured 18 names out of 27 required for the drill corps. It is to be hoped the company will be organized, as the Pythian uniforms and drill manual are both excellent.

Hughes & Hughes, attorneys at Morgantown, have called a meeting of their professional brethren, in Southern Kentucky, to meet at Crittenden Springs, on the O. V., July 30th, and form a Bar Association. All the lawyers in this county are invited, and those who will attend are requested to correspond with the above mentioned gentlemen.

Mail-contractor J. G. Steele is in the city to arrange for the much-neglected Cadiz and Lafayette mail routes. Postmaster Mr. Kenzie had to get a man to ride these routes last week. It is to be hoped that Mr. Steele will pay enough to get this business into responsible and reliable hands.

Messrs. James and C. Y. Anderson, the oldest and youngest sons of Mr. Josiah Anderson, with their families, held a reunion at the iron springs Saturday. There were 115 persons present, and all of them were Andersons but 13. A bonfire dinner was spread and the day proved most delightful.

David Brasler and Miss Emma Berpo of Kellys Station, took the 5 o'clock train in this city, Saturday afternoon, for Springfield, Tenn., where they were married, returning that night. It was not an elopement as the young couple merely desired the novelty of a trip to the usual groins green.

Rob Anglin was fined $35, and given 10 days in jail in the city court yesterday for breach of the peace and carrying concealed weapons. Sunday morning he attacked Henry Rodenhush on Seventh street and was knocked down three times.

Christian gave Capt. Ellis the largest vote in the district, next to his home county, Daviess. We can but believe that this was the result of the efforts of the Kentuckian in his behalf, an appreciation on the part of the people we desire to recognize.

Rev. J. U. Spurlock commenced a protracted meeting under an arbor at the crossing of the Butler and Dacker's Mill roads, Sunday night. The meeting will be continued ten days. The workers in removing the old cornice from around the court house found it honey-combed with birds' nests. They found 80 eggs and about the same number of young birds.

John Dinnene and Jim Hen had a fight Saturday morning. Hen received a laceration on his chin and Dinnene was bit on the chin. The court imposed a light fine on both parties.

Rev. Fred Hale, a distinguished revivalist from Louisville, will begin a meeting in the Fairview Baptist Church next Monday.

Granville Greer came home from Owensboro last week sick with malarial fever. He will remain here till he recovers.

Mrs. Susan West is again critically ill. Sunday Dr. Hickman called Dr. Talbot into consultation over the case.

Political speaking at the court house Wednesday night. Everybody invited.

Livy Burkner was quite sick Sunday but was able to ride down in town yesterday.

The date for the Old Point excursion has been changed to August 9th. For particulars see first page.

Miss Nannie Barba is very ill at the residence of her sister, Mrs. Ed. Moss, in the county.

Mr. Geo. Semmore has taken Mr. Givens' place as baggage master at the depot.

The officers for the August election will be found on another page.

The Mormons.
The Mormon Elders, Shipp and Worthington, preached at the court house Thursday night. There was no novelty in their doctrines as presented and not much power or persuasion in their utterance. A rumor that they had been hogged at Organo and treated roughly at other places in this county, is probably untrue. We understand two other Elders have been "done up" in this county recently, but Shipp and Worthington have so far had smooth sailing. They went to Montgomery county Saturday but will return to this vicinity in a few days.

The Turnpike War.

Last Friday Mr. A. B. Howard quit work on the Palmyra pike and left for J. J. Harrisonville, Ind. His departure and the stopping of the work on the pike became a matter of street talk Monday. The Kentuckian says his book keeper, Mr. Dan Desmond, yesterday, who made the statement that they had completed a mile of road, which was accepted by the engineer, but the directors failed to make the usual advancements and therefore they quit work. The further Mr. Howard would be back in five or two to settle the matter.

Mr. E. P. Campbell on the part of the Company said that Howard had completed two miles of said pike for which he had been paid according to contract. He had also been advanced $1300 on the third mile. Last Friday he appealed for more money, and when asked to remedy certain defects in the pike, he refused, and the directors thereupon would not advance the money. The third mile has not been completed nor the part built does not come up to contract.

Time the matter stands, and it has been intimated that the differences will not be settled except by a suit. The Company is anxious for the work to be completed, but will accept nothing but first-class work.

The Semi-Monthly Burglary.

About every two weeks some of the stores near the depot are burglarized, and it is seldom the thieves are caught. The gang seem to understand their business and do a very neat job when they set their minds to it. Thursday night Ferd Schmitt's confectionery was robbed of a lot of cigars, tobacco, &c., and one dollar in change. The col. office of the Hopkinsville Coal and Coke Company, on the opposite side of the street, was entered. There is no question but that a well organized squad of thieves are playing their trade in this town. The Council should select some first class man and appoint him a policeman to do service at the depot.

Woman And Child Shot.

As John Turnley, col., with his son Nelson Turner and wife, were on their way home from church, near Lafayette, Thursday night, they were fired on by some unknown party and the woman received a shot in the arm the ball going through the leg of an infant she held in her arms. As soon as the assailant saw the woman was shot he cried out: "I didn't aim at you," and ran, firing once or twice more as he left. Turnley thinks the man who did the shooting is a colored fellow who has a spite against him.

The next morning he found where the miscreants had led down his fence and two ropes were awning over a limb with the noose fixed for business. Evidently an attempt was made to wound and hang the Turnleys or to give them a very bad scare.

Proposition Amended.

Col. Neale has authorized Henry Abernathy to strike from the Cairo and Tenn. River proposition that section requiring this county to furnish the right of way in addition to a $200,000 subsidy. This is a very wise move, as the matter will now meet with more general favor. Col. Neale says that an additional tax of $20,000 will be voted by May field in a few days. His engineers will begin the survey of the blue at Cairo to-morrow and will come speedily in this direction. Owing to the absence of Mr. Abernathy the railroad meeting was not held Friday night, but the question will be considered some evening this week.

An Explanation.

BEVERLY, Ky., July 13th 1888.—The paragraph in your issue of to-day, stating that "the two Mormon Elders Shipp and Worthington had delivered discourses at Liberty Church, near Beverly, last Sunday," would if unexplained do that church as a body serious injustice. Therefore you will please give space to the following statement of facts concerning the matter.

It is true that the said Elders were present at Liberty on the day mentioned, when but a few were present, not being preaching day, and owing to the timidity or indifference of the members present they were permitted to make some remarks, which would not have happened had the church been apprised of their coming. No, the Church at Liberty would as soon have permitted men to speak there whose names were not known as to have listening houses of ill-fame, as to have permitted the Elders mentioned to do so.

Shot at a Thief.

Saturday night Messrs. Clarence and W. B. Kennedy went into their wheat field to see if everything was all right. They had quit threshing at 9 p.m. and wanted to watch the fire and keep it from doing any damage. They heard a noise in the barn where the wheat was stored, and in a few minutes a negro man came out with a sack over his shoulder. The young men opened fire, one shot going through the sack, but the fellow took to his heels and escaped.

The Public School Building to be Enlarged.

At the meeting of the School Board, Saturday morning, it was determined to present to the Council a plan to build an addition of two rooms to the public school building. The capacity of the building was taxed to its limit last year to accommodate the pupils, and it is now evident that the building must be enlarged or another one erected. Two more teachers will probably be required for the addition.

Attacked By a Horse.

Friday evening Addie, the little daughter of Col. and Mrs. L. A. Sybert, went to Mr. John Miller. A horse was grazing in the front yard, and when Miss Addie came in the animal rushed upon her, knocking her down and trampling on her face and breast. Mr. E. L. Dobbin came to the rescue, and but for his timely assistance, she no doubt would have been seriously injured. As it is her wounds are only slight.

Mrs. M. C. EDMUNDS.

HOPKINSVILLE, April 21.
I take pleasure in saying that I have a garment cutter, and by actual cost of this saved me $25 in six weeks. My daughter learned the system in a short while and can now draft any pattern worn by man, woman or child. This is perfect. I see no chance for it to be otherwise with this system. Every family should be interested. For a belt or to be one of the best inventions that is out. I certainly wish you success.

PEMBROKE, Ky., Mar. 12, '88.

Mr. Ed Sterling,
Sir:—The National Garment Cutter represented by yourself in my estimation is the nearest perfect and more easily learned than any other system before the public. It is certainly the housewife's friend.

My wife learned the system in a few lessons and used it twelve months with entire satisfaction. She asked me a question about it soon after purchasing the outfit, and on examination I saw the simplicity and reliability of the system, and with very little study I learned to cut any pattern I wanted. Often when my wife was busy I drafted patterns for her with ease and correctness.

A few trials give convincing proof of the correctness of the system and begests confidence in the most timid of their ability to cut and fit.

I volunteered my endorsement of the cutter and take pleasure in giving this testimonial. It is seldom I give a testimonial on anything of this character, but as I learned it so rapidly, almost by accident, I am convinced that "any one can easily learn and successfully use the system. You are at liberty to use this if you choose.

Truly, J. G. Bow,
Pastor of the Pembroke Baptist church.
